Moscow

Moscow is a large, bustling, exciting city, as you would expect from the capital city of an enormous country. There is plenty to do with a wide range of theatres, cinemas, clubs, bars, restaurants, etc. Like all big cities it is expensive. However, if you avoid the places frequented by foreign businessmen and the very rich, "new" Russians, it should be no more expensive than in UK, and at times surprisingly cheap.

Language Link

Language Link was established in Moscow in 1994. It teaches both English to Russians and Russian to foreigners. In a short time it has gained a very high reputation for the standards of its Russian language teaching. Its staff are all university level teachers, many of whom combine teaching at Language Link with teaching at prestigious higher educational institutions in Moscow

Its Russian language classes currently attract students from amongst foreign residents of Moscow, many of them businessmen. They also arrange special courses for university students from UK and USA. Language Link is based in a refurbished building with modern well equipped classrooms in central Moscow. It offers audio visual facilities, a video library and computer centre with internet access. It is a relatively small organisation and you will be well looked after by the staff of Russian teachers.

Tuition

At certain times of the year, Language Link will be able to offer you the chance of joining a group class. Please inquire to find out if there is a class at a suitable level for you.. Classes are held at four levels: beginners, intermediate, upper intermediate and advanced. If you are a beginner, you should join a course starting at the beginning of each month, all other students can join a group any Monday they wish.

Language Link can also provide you with individual tuition and will design a course specially to meet your needs. You tell us what you require, however specialised, and they will design the course and find the best teacher for you.

Accommodation

Language Link will find homestay accommodation. You will have your own room in a Russian flat and be provided with breakfast. In this way you will practise your Russian with your host or hostess and find out how Russians live.
